

From: John Hyland
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/26/02 5:32pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft's absurd narrow interpretation of the Tunney Act should be reason enough for punishment, but it is just another display of the arrogance with which they treat the law of this country. Make them pay mightily from their illegal profits and treat them as other monopolies have been, break them up. We need some real competition so that consumers can have some choices.

Thank you,
John J. Hyland
Gilroy, CA